Michael Couvillon

1. Jurisdictional Basis:

This Honorable Court has jurisdiction in the above captioned case pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

2. Claims and Responses:

Plaintiff: Martin Williams, a black female, claims that she was terminated by Sheriff Michael Couvillon due to race and color discrimination. Martin Williams claims that several similarly situated individuals were not terminated after being involved in similar and/or worse investigations than the investigation that led to the termination of Martin Williams. The similarly situated individuals are either white males or white females.

Defendant's Response: Defendant claims that the plaintiff was terminated for violating departmental policy by conspiring to submit a falsified firearms certification score to the governing authority (the Louisiana P.O.S.T. Council) for the purpose of obtaining state supplemental pay. There are no individuals similarly situated to the plaintiff because no other member of the department is known to have ever committed a similar violation.

3. Issues of Fact and Issues of Law:

1. Was Martin Williams terminated on the basis of her protected class?
2. Was Martin Williams terminated for a legitimate non-discriminatory reason?
